FIRST MUSIC

At age 4, my parents started me on piano

MUSICAL BACKGROUND

I traded in my piano for the trumpet at age 14 after my family moved from Newcastle to a small town named Young.

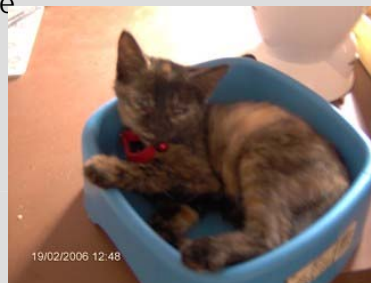

I have played in various high school bands, as well as during a 12-month stint in the USA playing in a marching band, pep band and jazz band.

On returning to Australia, I played in the Young town band and big band. Some years later I moved back home to Newcastle.

I joined Waratah Brass No. 2 playing Flugelhorn, but soon moved onto Solo Cornet. Not long after that, the conductor moved me to the soprano cornet, due to my good high range

Currently studying teaching at Newcastle University.

I play guitar and make short films and docos in my spare time!
